

Sean Lund
Chief Financial Officer
OnAir

Sean Lund was appointed Chief Financial Officer of OnAir in July 2006. He has overall responsibility for directing the financial activities of OnAir, ensuring strong corporate governance and maintaining relationships with external financial, fiscal and investment communities.

Prior to joining OnAir, Sean worked with SITA, the majority shareholder of OnAir, as Vice President Finance since 2001.

Before joining SITA, Sean gained several years of international finance experience with well established multinational companies including Nortel Networks (based in Canada, USA and Asia), Bombardier Capital and the Export Development Corporation of Canada. Sean is a Canadian national and holds an MBA from Dalhousie University in Canada.

Sean is based in Geneva, Switzerland where he lives with his wife and two children.